Embrace the Realities...Envision the Possibilities

Floodplains would be much easier to manage if everything remained static, but the reality is change occurs—nature and man impact change to our streams, watersheds, and the development that lies within. Fortunately, there are programs available for mitigation projects. Like most things, the better informed you are, the better you can utilize the programs. Come, join us for a day of information and discussion around the realities of what we are facing, new tools, and ways that some communities have embraced the realities, realizing their visions for a better future.

Displays

During breaks, conference supporters will have displays staffed and ready to provide information to attendees.

Continuing Education Credits (CECs)

This conference has been pre-approved for six (6) core CECs for Certified Floodplain Managers (CFMs). This year, Professional Engineers (PEs) licensed in Indiana can earn four (4) Professional Development Hours.

Location

The conference will be held in the Indiana Government Center South Conference Center, 402 W. Washington St, Indianapolis. A registration table will be located in the atrium just outside the auditorium of the Conference Center.
